Chocolate & Whole Milk Update

The Easter bunny is coming to town, which means that our chocolate milk has started flowing again! My favorite comment about it last fall came from a little girl at market, who popped a quart open at our stall and declared "this tastes like melted chocolate ice cream!". It is available in both half gallons and quarts, starting this week.

Our whole milk deserves some attention too, because it is also rich, creamy, and delicious - even without the cocoa and sugar! As anyone who has tasted our fresh, whole, cream on the top Jersey milk knows, there is no comparison. For the past five years, we've been bottling a very limited amount of milk each week, and we'd often be sold out of milk. We've disappointed a lot of people with our frequent "Sold Out" signs, so we invested in new equipment that allows us to bottle more milk each week. It is going to take some time to re-balance our production and sales, but it is our goal to keep milk in stock all day at market, and all week at the farm. If you'd given up on making it on time to get a jug of milk, please give us another chance! As always, the freshest milk is available at the farm on Fridays at noon.

Loyalty Program

Have you overheard us telling other customers that we were going to punch them as they walked away? That must sound awfully strange if you aren't familiar with our loyalty cards! We keep boxes of "buy 12 get 1 free" punch cards on our market stand for both milk and yogurt purchases. We'd be glad to start a loyalty card for you - just ask, and we'll be happy to punch you too! We don't have loyalty cards at our farm store because our prices at the farm are 25 to 50 cents less than our market prices on milk and yogurt. This is one of the things we do to try to encourage you to come out to our farm, walk out to the pastures, and ask, "How now, brown cow?".

Milk & Yogurt Shares

If you want to be sure that we'll have your favorite products reserved for you each week, join our share program. We offer both milk and yogurt shares, and we have a new session starting soon. Milk shares run from May through October. For $91, you get a half gallon of milk for 26 weeks, which includes small discount from the per bottle price. Yogurt shares are custom designed and also include a discount. We are flexible about payment plans for both programs. Watch for sign-up sheets on our market stand, and please feel free to e-mail with questions.

Buy 1 cheese curd, get 1 free!

Enjoy them all, or share a bag with a friend. (While supplies last.)

Offer Expires: Wednesday, April 4, 2012
One coupon per family, please.
