

Wake Robin

A Family Farm

August 25, 2011

TGIF at the Farm

Our farm store is open 7 days a week, from 7 to 7, but Friday afternoon is the ideal time to come to the farm, as all of our products are fresh and in stock. We make cheese curds on Thursdays, and bottle milk on Friday mornings, so you can find everything we make on Fridays after noon, as we gear up for Saturday market at the end of the week.

If you've been to our farm store before, you've discovered that most of the time we operate on the honor system, but on Fridays we are around all day to chat and provide full service, including credit card processing. We'll also be sampling our cheeses on Friday afternoons, starting this week and running through September.

Of course, we are happy to see you at the farm whenever it is convenient for your schedule, but we also want to make your trip worthwhile! If it is milk or cheese curds you are after, we encourage you to call or e-mail to check on our supply after Mondays.

If you come to the farm for yogurt or cheese, we have a good supply of our those products all week long, as well as eggs from October Rose Farm, and dry goods from other local producers, including Mu Mu Muesli, Lee's Bees Honey (produced on our farm), Syracuse Soapworks, Pompey Gold Grape Juice, and more.

Hope to see you soon!
