A Family Farm

September 14, 2012

Food comes from farms, and that simple fact is the inspiration for this 3 part series of events. As a farmer, I consider it part of my job to preserve farmland, which is why I helped establish NYALT, the NY Ag Land Trust.

NYALT is helping to preserve working farms in our area, and we are hosting these events to help connect people to farms and celebrate the work we are doing. Hope you can join us!

Breakfast this Sunday

Owen Orchards

Sept. 16

8 a.m. to noon

$6 adult, $4 child

Family, Food, Farmland. With pancakes from New Hope Mills, eggs from Hudson Farms, maple syrup from Smokey Hollow, milk from Byrne Dairy, yogurt from Wake Robin and apples from Owen Orchard, we'll be eating locally as we support farmland protection and enjoy music from "The Harvesters".

Potluck lunch on October 21

Wake Robin Farm

Oct. 21

Noon to 4

Bring a dish made with local ingredients to share at our potluck lunch. Our cows will be eating their lunch in the pasture across the road, and we'll keep warm and dry under a large tent in our hay field. Music will be provided by the amazing Kambuyu Marimba Ensemble, and dancing will be encouraged!

Dinner on the farm

Since we do not have a definite plan for the dinner part of this series yet, I leave you with a promise to keep you updated, a video of one of our girls eating her dinner. This is grazing in action!
